SUBJECT: Establishment of Search Advisory Committee for the Head of School of BU Academy

As we work in the coming academic year to identify permanent new leadership at Boston University Academy, I write to announce the formation of a Search Advisory Committee for the next BU Academy Head of School.

A list of the committee's membership is attached. I would like to give special thanks to BU School of Law Professor and BU Academy parent Jack Beermann who has agreed to serve as Committee Chair.

The Search Advisory Committee will commence its work immediately, in collaboration with the search firm of Carney, Sandoe & Associates, consulting with the relevant stakeholders, soliciting nominations, recruiting outstanding candidates, assessing the qualifications and strengths of nominees and applicants, and finally recommending candidates for the position to me. I look forward to receiving the committee's recommendations of 3-5 qualified candidates by December 21, 2018 for final selection by President Brown and me.

The selection of a new Head of School for Boston University Academy is an important decision as we work to advance the goals of this special institution and the unique opportunities for exploration and inquiry it offers its students as members of the larger BU community.

I want to thank our search committee in advance for its assistance as we work in earnest over the coming months to identify the strongest possible candidates. I would also like to thank Dr. Rosemary White for her service and strong leadership as Interim Head of School during this period of transition.
