Instructions for paying BUA tuition from a non-U.S. financial institution

Families can make payment to Boston University Academy from a bank account outside the U.S. using services provided by Flywire. The use of this service will generally result in a low exchange rate and/or total transaction cost.

- Go to www.flywire.com/pay/buspecialprograms
- Enter the originating country and payment amount
- Review the payment options and select your preferred method
- Create a new account or sign into your existing Flywire by peerTransfer account
- Enter your personal details and payment info; select 'Boston University Academy' from the Program Name drop down menu
- Follow the appropriate payment instructions given your preferred method
